

Rule 8018 does not grant absolute discretion to dismiss appeals for failure to prosecute. Indeed, the Eleventh Circuit has cautioned against “routine dismissal[s] for failure to timely file briefs.” Brake v. Tavormina (In re Beverly Mfg. Corp.), 778 F.2d 666, 667 (11th Cir. 1985). Instead, “dismissal is proper only when bad faith, negligence or indifference has been shown.” Id.

Because Appellant's ongoing silence in this matter demonstrates negligence and indifference, dismissal of this appeal is proper. See Pyramid Mobile Homes, Inc. v. Speake, 531 F.2d 743, 745–46 (5th Cir. 1976) (affirming district court's dismissal of appeal where "for over four months after filing its appeal appellant had made no effort to comply with the Rules"). Since the transmittal of appeal from the bankruptcy court was docketed on April 25, 2017, Appellant has not filed any papers with the court. The court's August 1, 2017 Order to respond to Appellee's motion to dismiss similarly went unanswered. (See Doc. # 5.) This is the sort of "complete failure to take any steps other than the mere filing of a notice of appeal" that justifies dismissal under Rule 8018(a)(4). In re Beverly Mfg. Corp., 778 F.2d at 667.

Accordingly, it is ORDERED that Appellee Jennifer Elaine Pride's Motion to Dismiss Appeal (Doc. # 4) is GRANTED. It is further ORDERED that this appeal is DISMISSED with prejudice.

A final judgment will be entered separately.

DONE this 30th day of August, 2017.
